ORAL JUDGEMENT

Mr.PH Pathak, learned counsel for the petitioners states that as per the interim order passed by this Hon'ble Court in Civil Application No. 1312 of 1995, all the petitioners employees are reinstated in service and they have joined their respective posts.

Without prejudice to the rights of the petitioners to get back wages from the date of termination till actual reinstatement, the petitioners seeks permission to withdraw the petition with liberty to approach appropriate court, in case their claim of back wages will not be accepted by the respondents. So far I am concerned, I am not expressing any opinion with regard to back wages.

In view of the above liberty to approach appropriate court and/or form is granted. In view of above statement, the petitioners seek permission to withdraw this petition. Permission granted. Petition disposed of Rule is discharged. No costs.
